If you were a member of AAA South Jersey, Inc. since January 31, 2015 and renewed your membership at some point during the ninety (90) days following the stated expiration of your annual membership, you could get benefits from a class action settlement.

You received this postcard because you have been identified as a member of AAA South Jersey. The plaintiff in the class action lawsuit alleges that AAA did not disclose its practice of backdating its annual membership period to the date a member's previous term period expires, rather than the date the member renews his or her membership. AAA denies any wrongdoing or liability and denies the allegations. A settlement of the class action has been reached. Under the proposed settlement, you may be entitled to a payment and other benefits.

To read a more detailed description of the terms of the proposed settlement, please visit www.aaasouthjerseysettlement.com or call toll free 1-866-274-4004. If you wish to receive benefits under the settlement, you must submit a claim form to the Settlement Administrator: Wilson v. AAA South Jersey, Inc., c/o Strategic Claims Services, 600 N. Jackson Street, Suite 205, Media, PA 19063 no later than September 9, 2019. The claim form will be available online at www.aaasouthjerseysettlement.com. If the settlement is approved, class members who timely submit valid claim forms will be entitled to receive payments and other benefits under the settlement. If you are a class member, whether you file a claim form or not, any legal claims that you may have or could have in the future regarding the membership renewals at issue will be released. If you do not wish to be bound by the terms of the settlement, you must exclude yourself from the settlement by July 20, 2019. You also may instead formally object to the settlement by July 20, 2019 by filing an objection with the Court as well as Class Counsel and AAA's Counsel. Visit www.aaasouthjerseysettlement.com for information on how to do so.
